

Pamela Desmond Wright

Publishers Weekly Bestselling Author

Twitter
Instagram
Facebook
@pamdwrites

About

A veteran of the e-book revolution of the late '90's, Pamela moved into traditional print publishing, writing in the paranormal and adult romance genres for Kensington and NAL/Penguin. Nominated 2 times, she won the Romantic Times Reviewers Choice Award in 2010. Pamela was also a founder of the scam publishers and agents website, The Write Connection, which was transferred to the SFWA through (then) vice-president A.C. Crispin to become Writer Beware. Her experiences with scam agents and publishers was documented in Professor Jim Fisher's book, Ten Percent of Nothing: The Case of the Literary Agent From Hell.

In 2013, Pam took a break from writing to reassess her career choices. Unable to shake the story bug, she came back in 2019 with a new focus, fulfilling a promise to write inspirational books her entire family could enjoy. Though her characters are often handed difficult challenges in life, they always persevere over the darker times through the power of faith and love.

After signing with Tamela H. Murray of The Steve Laube Agency, Pamela sold her first Amish Romance to Harlequin Love Inspired. Released in late 2021, The Cowboy's Amish Haven debuted on the Publishers Weekly Bestseller List. Since that time, her Love Inspired books have consistently made the top 25. She recently accepted a new deal with Harlequin Love Inspired for 6 more Amish titles.

Agent

Tamela Hancock Murray
The Steve Laube Agency
24 W. Camelback Rd. A-635
Phoenix, AZ 85013
(602) 336-8910

pamelsdesmondwright.com